

Dear ILAC Members

A suite of promotional materials to support World Accreditation Day 2014 is now available for download from the ILAC website.

The theme on June 9th will focus on how accreditation delivers confidence in the provision of energy. To support your promotional activities, ILAC and IAF have jointly produced the following materials in addition to the poster:

- A joint statement from the ILAC and IAF Chairs that sets out the important role that accreditation plays in the provision of energy.
- A promotional brochure containing a series of case studies where accreditation delivers confidence in the energy sector.

High resolution template versions of the poster and brochure are also available from the website should you wish to add your logo and translate.

For those members that use Twitter, please use #worldaccreditationday when tweeting.

As we approach June 9th, ILAC and IAF will also release a short promotional film on the ILAC and IAF You tube channel.

Kind regards

Annette Dever
